Becoming Women After God's Own Heart

Difference between

regret

and

repentance

True repentance isn't just adding God to your life;

It's getting rid of anything that's occupying His rightful place in it.

Repentance
is proven by actions.

When we depend on our own plans, our efforts fail & brings hardship on us. But when we trust in the Lord & pray, He meets our need.

Set up “Ebenezers”
to remind you of how the Lord’s worked in your life.

You can teach
your kids
about God,
but THEY have to choose to walk in His ways.

God has no
grandchildren;
only children.

The idols of the world promise
to give...

But they take,
and take, and take...

The world is a king that takes...

God is a King
who gives!

Sometimes God steps back and lets us have what we stubbornly insist on!

When God says “no,”
trust that His boundaries
are there to protect you,
not to deprive you!

Principles to apply:

- A heart after God can't be shared with idols of the world.

Principles to apply:

- A heart after God can't be shared with idols.
- Intentionally mark moments of God's faithfulness (Ebenezers).
Review often. Share with others.

- Stop the comparison trap!

YOUR CHOICE:

- REPENT
- RETURN to the Lord wholeheartedly
- COMMIT yourself to Him alone

- Continue to chase after human substitutes that promise security, but end up taking

JESUS

came to give His life for you!
